

IMPROVING PHYSICAL AND MENTAL HEALTH OF THE BLACK COMMUNITY

What can we do to provide support?

Speaker

Cheryl Prescod

As the CEO of Black Creek CHC Prescod strives to ensure equitable access to health services for vulnerable populations. A dedicated community leader she is a coalition builder, bringing together diverse stakeholders in community development initiatives that reflect the needs of the people. She facilitates numerous community-academic partnerships in research to build evidence that informs policy and innovative approaches to complex problems in marginalized communities.

Speaker

Liben Gebremikael

As the CEO of TAIBU Community Health Centre Gebremikael has led the organization since 2008 in developing and implementing various community-empowered and Afrocentric programs and services. TAIBU was created to meet the specific healthcare needs of the Black Community – and as it’s evolved, addresses all the social determinants of health including education, income, lifestyle, and housing. Gebremikael was the recipient of the prestigious “Emerging Leaders Award” from the Alliance for Healthier Communities.
